MLA Citation Style for Ebooks

In-Text Citation

When citing from an electronic book (e-book), MLA advises mentioning the author and title of the work in the sentence rather than using a parenthetical citation if the book’s pages aren’t numbered. So if you do use a parenthetical citation when the pages are unnumbered, MLA only requires the name of the author in parentheses at the end of the sentence where the source is quoted or summarized. For ebooks that contain a range of pages, you might consider adding the section and paragraph to the parenthetical cite or the page ranges:

Author Section Paragraph: (Johnson Ch. 2 par. 2).
Author and Page Range: (Johnson Ch. 2 1450-75).

Works Cited Entry for E-Books

CORE ELEMENTS: To create entries of articles for the list of Works Cited, writers now follow a universal set of MLA formatting guidelines that can be applied to any source, in any field, using nine core elements common to most sources. An entry should include as many of these elements as are available for the source, in the order listed below and punctuated as shown. (Not every source will contain every element. The final element is followed by a period.)

1. Author.
2. Title of source.
3. Title of container,
4. Other contributors,
5. Version,
6. Number,
7. Publisher,
8. Publication date,
9. Location.

Author(s). Title of source. Title of container, Other contributors, Version, Number, Publisher, Publication Date, Location.
