

Accessing Biblical Commentary from the *New Interpreter's Bible

You may request that the Monroe Library send copies of information from the New Interpreter's Bible (CD-ROM ed. Nashville: Abingdon, 2002). To do so, please follow the procedure below:

1. Review the New Interpreter's Bible's Table of Contents found on the following pages. Jot down the name of the sections of the NIB you are requesting, which may include chapter and verses, but also the general articles about the book in which the passage is located and/or about the Old Testament or New Testament more broadly. Please be aware that a whole section of the NIB can be up to 800 pages, so please request only the sections you are interested in using for your research.
2. Sign up for an interlibrary loan (ILLiad) account if you haven't already done so by going to <<https://louis.hosts.atlas-sys.com/illiad/LLM/logon.html>>. A tutorial on how to request materials using ILLiad can be found at <http://library.loyno.edu/help/handoutsandtutorials/course.php?tutorial=lim\_ill>.
3. When making your request in ILLiad, please specify:
  - that you are a LIM extension (or online) student
  - that you have a BOOK CHAPTER request specifically from the NEW INTERPRETER'S BIBLE CD-ROM
  - the correct Bible chapter and verse(s) for the passage about which you are requesting information.

Please note: You will need to submit separate requests for passages that are not within a couple of pages of one another (for example, when you are requesting articles as well as information on a specific book, chapter, and verse).
